

April 21st Bowberry Row
Efe

My Own Dearest Husband

just a few lines in reply to

yours. Well Dear I

am sorry you are going into the line so soon

Please God you will be safe my Love send me a field card when you cant write a letter

as you know how
anxious I am, Well

Dear I have got
the Barley drilled

& the Potatoes set on the land & the garden
I have finished setting to day now I have only the carrots & a
few parsnips at home
then the crops are all in & father wouldnt take anything for the Potatoes & they cost him ten
shillings. he says he
wont miss them only
I dont like iforging
on him it is good of
them to work the land for nothing. Well My Love I have haught

a pig not very big 30 shillings off to Love Elms has got two I went & picked it this morning well Dad
shall fetch it home
on Monday it should
make a nice one by
thens They tell me
we are not going to be allowed to buy
Barley meal so I dont know whether they will grind the Barley I am a good mind to send the sack of Barley now so it will be ready when I want it

I am going to change
the Baber as the Co. of
is awfull dry now it is war bread, Uncle Harry has moved so well told me Elsie is delighted her Daddy is buying
her a carriage & tells everybody about it &
name my Darling I
must close my letter
from your own loving wife. Hannah

+++++

God bless & keep
you safe Love

Pte W Teggardine
20440 D Company
1st Norfolk Regt
13 Platoon
B E Bree
France