Dearest Wife just a few lines to let you know i am getting on quite well and in the best of health hoping you are getting on quite well and the Children i receive the washing always and thank you for the tarts they went down a treat well Dear you did not send my shaving stick i bought a fresh one not been used but it doesnt matter i will buy one to night i am going out to see it i can get my washing done out side thins is several got there done this week it will cost no much to send it home every week well becu i should buy a small in a pig tough and get some ^m rather to buy one it would take up so much room becu wife i am pleased you havent swallowed that chider it will give us a better chance i have been to Seawick this week and have had to 2 that drawed and i have got to go again and have so more drawend thap o ar i have got a bad set thap wil bect me up with a new set if i like and i think i had better take the chance Jack Winters has had three day off with his arm mine his gun on first rate very nearly better I don't know when I shall get home as some say they are going to grant army more power while they have us here for a month I think that is all this time love giving love to all at home is normal

Yours loving
