My Own Dearest Wife Just a few lines to let you know I am quite safe and well except for a cold.
I am sorry I have not wrote before but I have not had the chance I have been up the line for 4 days and it has been rough I can tell you but we came away last night for a few days rest we are all done up Well May I have I received your Parcel this morning [illegible] and it is some in very handy we not had much to eat time we was up the line I can tell you love I have seen some rough sights we have been up were there has been a great advance they Captured a lot of Prisoners we went to relieve them that made the Advance it was a sight I shall not forget in a hurry but they keep on sending a lot of Cob Iron over now 20th to

13. Platoon D Coy 1st Cornwalls Regt B.E.F France Well love I am pleased to hear you are all getting on alright and I daresay you are busy selling on with the Gardening and and the Allotment I am pleased to hear you have got the Barley in but it is rather late but still we cant help the Weather it has been raining and raining and raining nearly every day you would have thought I would have dug Mothers Garden for her I should think he has very busy now if there is no Potatoes about they are making azors price now Well Dear if the Hens dont lay I will send some more of them off you have got to many for the time of the Run you would get just as many eggs from 6 hens you are

have got they are never crowed I will get my this is German Paper

Photo taken the first chance I get but I am miles away from any Town and the Villages we get to are all blown to atoms you cant even find the Foundations it will take years to but this Country straight again there nothing to see but Ruins Well love I think I have told you most of the News well love dont send me any more Money you can do with that I have not spent that what you have sent me yet Well My Love give my love to all at Home and tell them I am alright at present now I must close my letter with fondest love and Kisses from Yours loving Husband Cherish Love
